

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Gloria in Celebrate in Song, p. 48.

2 Kgs. 5.14-1 2 Tim. 2.8-13 Lk. 17.11-19

Psalm refrain: The Lord has revealed his victory in the sight of the nations.

INTRODUCTION TO THE MASS

The first reading and the Gospel show us miraculous cures from the terrible disease of leprosy. Through faith and trust, those who were sick listened to and followed the direction of their healers and regained their lives and standing in the community. Nothing is beyond God's capabilities, including forgiving our most egregious sins.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, Naaman is cured of his leprosy after following the prophet Elisha's instructions to plunge into the Jordan River seven times.

In his Letter to Timothy, Paul notes that while he may be in chains, the word of God is not. All who are faithful to Christ will obtain salvation in him.

In the Gospel, Jesus cleanses 10 lepers but only one of them – a Samaritan – returns to give glory and thanks to God.
