

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sir. 27:30–28:7 Rom. 14:7-9 Mt. 18:21-35

Psalm refrain: The Lord is merciful and gracious; slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love.

INTRODUCTION TO THE MASS

Life always offers us choices – will we hold onto anger or choose to forgive? Will we live with a spirit of compassion or withhold mercy? Will we hold onto hurts and grievances or extend a hand in peace? Living out the commands of God is no easy task, but if we show mercy and forgiveness to others, we are assured of the same from our heavenly Father.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Sirach tells the people, Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. Thus, they are to forgive their neighbor as they wish to be forgiven by the Lord. Paul tells the Romans, None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord.

In the Gospel, Jesus answers Peter's question of how often he must forgive by telling him the parable of the unforgiving servant.
