

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Ez. 33.7-9 Rom. 13.8-10 Mt. 18.15-20

Psalm refrain: O that today you would listen to the voice of the Lord. Do not harden your hearts!

INTRODUCTION TO THE MASS

Our readings today work together to teach us about the real obligations of the law, which include gently correcting one another so that our communities may be in harmony. Paul explains how we must do this, and do all things, with love. And Jesus promises to remain with us always.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, the Lord tells Ezekiel that he will be held responsible for the death of the wicked one if he does not speak out to dissuade [him] from his way. In the Letter to the Romans, Paul writes that the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. In the Gospel, Jesus gives instructions for correcting another, gives authority to bind and loose, and promises where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

LECTORS NEEDED

We are looking for a few new readers for our Saturday evening Masses. A brief introduction and training will be provided. Please contact Fr. Mirek for more information.

CONDOLENCES

We extend our deepest sympathies to:

- Anne (Jerry) McDougall and family on the passing of her brother, John Birka (95).

- Jocelyne (Lorne) Sidey and family on the death of her sister-in-law Claudette Paillé (65).

- Halina (Jan) Reinert on the passing of her nephews, Marcin (44) and Tomasz (46) Klima, who passed away in Poland.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord...

Labour Day Weekend marks the end of the summer vacation period and the resumption of activities in home, parish and school.
